

STONE HAND OVER INSTRUCTIONS

Dear Valued Customer,

Firstly, we would like to sincerely thank you for choosing to have IPC Granite stone in your stunning living space, and we assure you it will last for years to come.

This being said it is vital you arrange the required warranty with the stone brand you have chosen. We here at IPC granite can only do so much to assist you in future with any damage if you do not arrange this warranty immediately. After it has been registered, (Using the documentation we have provided for you) your stone is completely protected by the chosen brand in the case of any damage to the bench within the warranty period.

If you would like to give us any feedback relating to our product, we are happy to take your emails and/or calls to ensure you are happy with you product. We will do our absolute best to solve any complaints you may have, and leave you loving our product as much as we do!

If everything is too your liking, it would mean the world to us if you would let us know via a nice google review!

IPC Granite

Sincerely yours,

The Customer Service Team at IPC Granite
